The Voice of a Stranger

"When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers." John 10:4-5

Young children are often frightened by strangers. Infants, for example, form a strong bond with their mothers who feed them, hold them close, talk to them, and lavish love upon them. It often happens that when other family members, such as grandparents or even the father, attempt to hold the child, tears emerge until the child is placed once again in the familiar and safe arms of his or her mother.

An infant's reaction to strangers can teach us much about today's Gospel on Jesus, the Good Shepherd. Like an infant, sheep become familiar with the voice and presence of their shepherd. The shepherd lives with the sheep night and day. He calls to them, speaks to them, keeps them safe, and leads them to green pastures and water. If a stranger were to call them, they would not listen, similar to how an infant reacts to a stranger.

Jesus' teaching is in response to the criticism He received from the Pharisees after He healed a man born blind. After healing the man, Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind" (John 9:39). When the Pharisees heard Jesus say that, they inquired whether He was suggesting that they were blind, to which Jesus replied, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you are saying, 'We see,' so your sin remains" (John 9:41).

An infant's unfamiliarity with a stranger is instinctive and innocent, yet it teaches us about the deeper spiritual reality Jesus describes. Just as sheep recognize the voice of their shepherd and follow him because they trust in his care, so too does a soul attuned to God respond to His voice. In contrast, the Pharisees, who prided themselves on their religious knowledge, failed to recognize Jesus as the true Shepherd. This failure was not innocent ignorance; it was willful blindness rooted in their rejection of His divine mission. The healed blind man perceived Jesus' voice with the simplicity of faith, while the Pharisees, claiming to 'see' with their own wisdom, remained in sin because they refused to hear and follow the voice of the Good Shepherd.

The Pharisees saw Jesus as a stranger to their religious beliefs and practices. They labeled Him an imposter. Unlike the innocent reaction of an infant or the natural response of sheep, the Pharisees' unfamiliarity with Jesus was a sin stemming from pride. It was a blindness of their own making that closed their hearts to the comforting and supernaturally familiar voice of God. To recognize Jesus' voice is to respond to the call of grace, trust in His teachings, and follow into the fullness of life He offers. Only by humbly admitting our need for His guidance can we, like the sheep, allow Him to lead us to green pastures and salvation.

Reflect today on the fact that God calls out to you day and night. Do you recognize His voice? Or do you, like the Pharisees, turn away from Him? Following the Good Shepherd begins with an intimate familiarity with His divine presence in our lives. We must become as familiar with Him as an infant is with its mother or as sheep are with their faithful shepherd. Failure to recognize the Good Shepherd's voice leaves us lost and unable to care for ourselves. Jesus desires to lead us, care for us, and bring us to the abundant pastures of new life. Become familiar with Him and listen to His voice alone, and like the blind man, you will begin to see in ways you never have before, through the eyes of faith.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PRIESTS

We thank you, God our Father, for those who have responded to your call to priestly ministry. Accept this prayer we offer on their behalf; Fill your priests with the sure knowledge of your love. Open their hearts to the power and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Lead them to new depths of union with your Son. Increase in them profound faith in the Sacraments they celebrate as they nourish, strengthen and heal us.

Lord Jesus Christ, grant that these, your priests, may inspire us to strive for holiness by the power of their example, as men of prayer who ponder your word and follow your will.

O Mary, Mother of Christ and our mother, guard with your maternal care these chosen ones, so dear to the Heart of your Son. Intercede for our priests that, offering the Sacrifice of your Son, they may be conformed more each day to the image of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Vocation Prayer

O God, we earnestly ask You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers, and sisters who will love You with their whole strength and gladly spend their entire lives to serve Your Church and to make You known and loved. Bless our families, bless our children, choose from our homes those needed for Your work. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us, pray for our priests, religious, and deacons. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, we hear Jesus call himself the gate to the sheepfold. He opens to lead the sheep to verdant pastures and closes to save them from danger. In the first reading, Peter reminds us that repentance acts as a gate as well. Repenting of our sins brings forgiveness and salvation. As we listen to God's word, let us pray that we will recognize the voice of the Lord calling us to repentance and the blessings within.

Question of the Week:

How can I live my life more abundantly? What specific things can I do this week to increase the love and mercy in my life?

Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic School in Scott is currently accepting applications for the following positions for the 2026-2027 school year.

Interested applicants should submit a resume to Principal Danielle Babineaux at dbabineaux@sts-peter-paul.org.

Positions:

Middle School Math Teacher (6th-8th grade, Algebra)
Middle School Social Studies Teacher (6th-8th grade)
Athletic Director/Elementary PE Teacher

Acts 2:14, 36-41

Peter preaches to the crowd on Pentecost, exhorting them to be baptized and receive the Holy Spirit.

The Vocation Angle:

When Peter addressed the crowd, "they were cut to the heart". Sometimes the Holy Spirit speaks in a moment of clarity deep in our spirit. Many men who have been called to the priesthood have had this experience – during Mass, on a retreat, or at a youth event. The question is how do you respond? Will you be like those in the crowd that day who responded wholeheartedly to the call?

Psalms 23

This most famous psalm describes peace in the midst of danger because of reliance on the Shepherd.

The Vocation Angle:

When a young person feels called to the priesthood or religious life, he or she can experience confusion and anxiety. But the saints tell us to never make a decision in a state of fear. Rather, like the psalmist, we must learn to discover a place of inner peace, where we hear Jesus best, and then trustingly respond to His call.

1 Peter 2:20-25

"For you had gone astray like sheep, but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your soul"

The Vocation Angle:

Imperfection does not disqualify you from a vocation! In fact, those who have strayed furthest are the greatest testaments to God's mercy. Offer your unworthiness to God, then follow wherever he leads you.

Gospel: John 10:1-10

Jesus is the Good Shepherd who calls us to himself.

The Vocation Angle:

To hear the Shepherd's voice requires quiet and prayer. The late Pope Benedict XVI said "Young people, if they can be taught how to pray, can be trusted to know what to do with God's call." Preach about prayer, methods of prayer, and importance of listening for God's voice, especially when making big decisions in life.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations will be observed on Sunday, April 26, 2026, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday".

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). This year marks the 63rd Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity, secular institutes), and to the missionary life.

Should you have any questions about discerning a Vocation to the priesthood or religious life please call the Office of Vocations at 337.261.5690 or email at DioLafVocations@gmail.com.

Here are three simple ways you can participate:

- Pray – Offer a Rosary or a personal Holy Hour for an increase in vocations.
- Encourage – Take a moment to affirm someone who may have a vocation to priesthood or religious life.
- Special Intention at Mass – Offer your Mass intentions for priests, seminarians, and all those discerning their vocations.

May we be all open to God's call in our own lives!!!

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

By Saint Thérèse of Lisieux

O Jesus, I pray for Your faithful and fervent priests; for Your unfaithful and tepid priests; for Your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for Your tempted priests; for Your lonely and desolate priest; for Your young priests; for Your dying priests; for the souls of Your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to You the priests dearest to me: the priest who baptized me; the priests who absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.

O Jesus, keep them all close to Your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity...Amen
