Praying to the Father in the Son

This passage beautifully summarizes the entire Christian life—the life to which we are called and in which we find our purpose, meaning, and ultimate fulfillment. Jesus begins by offering praise to the “Father, Lord of heaven and earth.” Though Jesus Himself is fully God, “one in being with the Father”—co-eternal and consubstantial—He nevertheless offers praise to the Father.

In the original Greek, the phrase “I give praise to you...” (exomologoumai) indicates an open, public, and full acknowledgment by the Son of the Father’s sovereignty and gracious will. The Father is the All-Powerful Lord of all that exists—everything in the heavens and on earth. Jesus expresses this fundamental stance toward the Father for two reasons: first, because it is eternally true; and second, so that we might humble ourselves and join Him in praying the same prayer—through, with, and in Jesus.

This prayer closely parallels the opening of the Lord’s Prayer (the “Our Father”), because both begin with a direct acknowledgment and praise of the Father’s holiness and sovereignty. The Lord’s Prayer is the perfect prayer precisely because it was given to us by Jesus Himself. After addressing the Father, it presents seven petitions. According to Saints Thomas Aquinas and Augustine, the first two petitions—“hallowed be Thy name” and “Thy Kingdom come”—reveal the central purpose of our lives: to glorify God eternally and to be caught up in, and actively participate in that glory by becoming full members of His Kingdom. In today’s prayer, Jesus says “these things” have been revealed “to little ones” and that the Son can choose to reveal the Father to whom He wishes.

We are drawn into Jesus’ prayer and intimate relationship with the Father precisely when Jesus reveals the Father to us: “No one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.” Because Jesus deeply desires that we come to know and love the Father with the same love He has for Him, His prayer continues by gently inviting us—especially when burdened by weariness, weakness, or sin—to lay our burdens down before His merciful power and glory: “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28).

This tender invitation reveals Jesus’ deepest desire for us: that we would enter into His love for the Father, share intimately in the union between Father and Son, and thus magnify and glorify the Most Holy Trinity—not only in our earthly journey but eternally in Heaven. Indeed, what a sublime and glorious calling we have received!

Reflect today upon this beautiful prayer, knowing in your heart that Jesus Himself invites you to pray it with Him, through Him, and in Him. He longs for His voice to resonate within your voice, His love to beat within your heart, and His holy desires to shape your own. Turn your gaze toward the Father—He who is both the Source and ultimate goal of your existence—and strive lovingly and humbly to accomplish all things according to His gracious and holy will.

Our Father, You who dwell in the heavens and within the souls of Your sanctified ones, may Your eternal essence, Your holy Name—the One who was, who is, and who is to come, the Great I AM—be honored, praised, and glorified forever. May this glorification shine forth in my life and in the lives of all Your faithful, as we await with joyful hope the return in glory of Your Son, Jesus our Savior, when You, together with Him and the Holy Spirit, will establish the New Heavens and the New Earth. Jesus, I trust in You.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PRIESTS

We thank you, God our Father, for those who have responded to your call to priestly ministry. Accept this prayer we offer on their behalf; Fill your priests with the sure knowledge of your love. Open their hearts to the power and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Lead them to new depths of union with your Son. Increase in them profound faith in the Sacraments they celebrate as they nourish, strengthen and heal us.

Lord Jesus Christ, grant that these, your priests, may inspire us to strive for holiness by the power of their example, as men of prayer who ponder your word and follow your will.

O Mary, Mother of Christ and our mother, guard with your maternal care these chosen ones, so dear to the Heart of your Son. Intercede for our priests that, offering the Sacrifice of your Son, they may be conformed more each day to the image of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Vocation Prayer

O God, we earnestly ask You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers, and sisters who will love You with their whole strength and gladly spend their entire lives to serve Your Church and to make You known and loved. Bless our families, bless our children, choose from our homes those needed for Your work. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us, pray for our priests, religious, and deacons. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

The king shall come, Zechariah prophesied, not in a chariot with weapons drawn, but on a lowly ass, proclaiming peace. He anticipates Jesus telling his disciples that he is meek and humble of heart, as we hear today. Christ is the king the Father sent: gracious and merciful—as we sing in the psalm—slow to anger, greatly kind, and compassionate toward us all. Let us give thanks and praise to the Lord, in whom we can always find rest.

Question of the Week:

Do I consider myself meek? How can I be less resentful and more peaceful and patient with family, friends, and colleagues?

Thanking God for 250 Years! No better way to thank God and pray for America than accompanying Jesus in the Eucharist for a day of prayer and adoration on Bayou Teche during Fête-Dieu du Teche 2026! Individuals, families and parishes are encouraged to register a boat or gather at one or more of the stops along the procession route. The day begins at 8 AM with Sunday Mass in French by Bishop Douglas Deshotel at St. Leo the Great Catholic Church in Leonville. Following the Mass there will be a procession with the Blessed Sacrament and a statue of Mary and St. Joseph to the nearby boat landing. At 9:30 AM boats will depart in procession down Bayou Teche toward St. Martinville, retracing the voyage made by the Acadians 260 years ago. Bayou residents are encouraged to gather and greet the Blessed Sacrament as it passes near their home. The boat procession will stop at churches in the towns along the Teche for Rosary and Benediction (arriving at Arnaudville behind St. Francis Regis at 10:20 AM; arriving behind St. Joseph Church in Cecilia at 11:45 AM; arriving at the Pavilion behind St. Bernard Church in Breaux Bridge at 1:35 PM; arriving at the park behind St. Joseph Church in Parks at 3:15 PM; and arriving at Notre Dame Church in St Martinville at about 4:45 PM). Upon arriving in St. Martinville, a foot procession will commence to Notre Dame de Perpetual Secours for Benediction, then to St. Martin de Tours for Benediction, and finally down Main Street to Mater Dolorosa Chapel for Solemn Vespers and Final Benediction at 6:00 PM. Confessions will be heard in mobile units at each of the stops along the way. Participants of Fête-Dieu du Teche can gain a Plenary Indulgence by participating. The indulgence is valid on August 15 for those who attend the 8 am French Mass in Leonville, those who make the procession by boat, and those who participate in the devotions at one of the many stops along the Teche. Those who are impeded for a serious reason from physically attending the procession may also gain the indulgence by spiritually uniting their prayers and trials. The Holy Father asks participants to pray for fidelity to the Christian vocation, for the good of the family, and for priestly and religious vocations. Register boat at <https://www.fetediuduteche.org/register>. You may also follow by vehicle and join us at one or all of the stops for the Rosary and Benediction. For more information visit our website at www.fetediuduteche.org or at www.facebook.com/CommunityofJesusCrucified Email us at fetediuduteche@gmail.com or call (337) 394-6550.

Flos Carmeli Prayer

O beautiful Flower of Carmel, most fruitful vine, Splendor of Heaven, holy and singular, who brought forth the Son of God, still ever remaining a Pure Virgin, assist me in this necessity.
O Star of the sea, help and protect me! Show me that Thou art my Mother.
O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to Thee! Amen.

Totus marianus est Carmelus (Carmel is all Mary's.)

This ancient Carmelite saying was true of the life of St. John of the Cross, who the Carmelite Order is celebrating this year as we mark the 300th anniversary of his canonization and the 100th of his being declared a Doctor of the Church. Our Mount Carmel Novena, preached by Fr. Thomas Reeves, OCD, will draw on the spiritual teaching of St. John of the Cross to bring us closer to Jesus through Mary, Mother of Carmel. All are welcome to participate in these grace filled days of prayer.

Masses will also be live streamed

Carmel is All Mary's

(Totus Marianus est Carmelus)

The history of Carmel overflows with the presence of the Virgin Mary. It began on Mount Carmel where the first hermits dedicated a little chapel to her. Later they undertook to found their lives on imitation of her whom they regarded as the Mother and Patroness of Carmel. She is the embodiment of union with God in faith, hope and love, prayer and self-denial. The grandeur of the feminine vocation was revealed in her when she said: "I am the handmaid of the Lord." She humbly and wisely welcomed the Lord's word and pondered it in her heart. She was wholly responsive to the impulses of the Holy Spirit. She was the valiant woman who followed Christ faithfully and shared in the joys and sorrows of his Paschal Mystery.

In Our Lady, Carmelites contemplate the ideal of the Order lived to perfection. Her example inspires them to follow in her footsteps. They find in her a mother and teacher in the ways of the Spirit who will conform them to Jesus and lead them to the heights of holiness.

Because of their profession, the Carmelite Nuns belong to the Virgin Mary in a special way. They wear her habit to show that they are members of her Order and are determined to clothe themselves with her virtues. The Carmelite ideal is to BE Mary in the Church today, "capable of true love and of being a fountain of living water in the midst of a thirsting world" (Pope Benedict XVI).

"Praise Him, my daughters, for you truly belong to Our Lady... Imitate her and reflect that the grandeur of Our Lady and the good of having her for your patroness must indeed be great."
-St. Teresa of Jesus to her spiritual daughters

"I do not tremble when I see my weakness, for the treasures of a mother belong also to her child, and I am thy child, O dear Mother Mary."
-St. Therese of the Child Jesus

Prayer for Vocations to Carmel

O God, who did fill the soul of the Blessed Virgin Mary with the spirit of interior prayer, inspire in the hearts of many young people a vocation to her Order of Carmel, that they may plentifully receive of this spirit and generously communicate it to others, through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Thank You
To the people whom I love...

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for the many birthday wishes, cards, gifts, and especially your prayers. Your kindness and generosity made my birthday truly special, and I am deeply grateful to be surrounded by such a loving and faith-filled parish family. My birthday is especially meaningful because I have the blessing of celebrating it on the Feast of our beloved patron saints of our Church Parish, Sts. Peter and Paul. To share my birthday with our parish feast fills my heart with gratitude. It reminds me that my life and priesthood are closely united with this parish family and with the mission of Saints Peter and Paul, whose faith, courage, and love for Christ continue to inspire us all. It is a privilege and a blessing to serve as your pastor. Each day, I thank God for the opportunity to walk with you in faith, celebrate the sacraments with you, and share in the joys and challenges of our parish community.

Please know that I remember all of you in my daily prayers and at the altar during the celebration of the Holy Mass. May our Lord continue to bless you and your families with His peace, joy, and abundant grace. Thank you again for your thoughtfulness and for making my birthday such a memorable occasion.

Peter & Paul, pray for us!
May Jesus always live in our hearts,
