	Question of the Week:  How have I borne witness to Jesus Christ? How will I bear witness between now and Pentecost?	On this special day, we celebrate twin milestones: Jesus' ascension from earth to heaven and the commissioning of the disciples. Before Jesus left them, he told his disciples to preach in his name to all the nations, from Jerusalem to the ends of the earth. Then his apostles saw him lifted up and out of their sight, never to return in bodily form until the end of time. As his disciples, let us carry on the mission of the first apostles, trusting that the Holy Spirit will guide us and empower us to be witnesses to the world of Jesus' love and forgiveness.

Witnessing to the Gospel

And with that, the earthly mission of Jesus was completed and He ascended into Heaven. Or was it? Was His mission completed? Yes, but only in the sense that our Lord's work of destroying death and offering new life was accomplished by His life, death and resurrection. Human nature was now invited to share in a new life of grace.

Prayerfully imagine standing on the mountain of the Ascension with our Lord. As you gaze upon Him, imagine that you were also present with Him throughout His public ministry. Imagine witnessing His many miracles, the way that He converted the hardest of hearts, the authority with which He spoke, His arrest, torture, death and then His Resurrection. Imagine seeing His hands and feet, once pierced, now radiating glory from those wounds. As you see our Lord in this way, imagine Him looking at you with love and saying to you that He has chosen to send you forth to the world to be a witness to Him and to all that you have seen and encountered. You are to go forth sharing the Good News of His life, death and resurrection with all whom you come in contact with.

First, our Lord has, indeed, shared His entire life with you. By reading the Gospels, you become a firsthand witness to all that Jesus did and accomplished. His Word is alive, and it reveals His very Person to you, just as it did to His first followers. Second, Jesus does call you to go forth and to share this living Gospel with the world. Therefore, it is important to ponder how you can do such a thing. How can you give witness to the Resurrection of Christ? How can you change lives? How can you continue the mission of Jesus Himself?

The promise given by our Lord to the disciples on the mountain of the Ascension is also a promise given to you. He is promising to send the Holy Spirit upon you so as to clothe you "with power from on high." Only by receiving that power and using it fully will you be able to accomplish the mission that our Lord has given to you. Therefore, will you open yourself to the Holy Spirit and commit yourself to the continuation of Christ's mission?

If we were to fully understand the mission we have received from Jesus, it would fill us with a holy fear. But too often the realization of what God wants of us fills us with an unholy fear instead. We think about evangelizing others, sharing our faith, witnessing to the truth by our actions, loving our enemies and living for the Gospel alone, and it can appear overwhelming. If that is the case with you, then know that this form of unholy fear can be dispelled so that the gift of holy fear can take its place. Holy fear is a gift of the Holy Spirit that inspires us to sense the awesomeness of God and the mission we are given by encountering it firsthand. It motivates us, encourages us and leaves us with wonder and awe. From there, this and every other gift of the Holy Spirit enables us to fulfill the unending mission of Christ.

Reflect, today, upon the particular mission that God has given to you. Prayerfully look at Jesus as He stands on the mountain of the Ascension and looks at you. As He does, let Him reveal to you not only His very Person but also your particular sharing in His ongoing mission of sharing the Good News to the ends of the earth. Receive that mission with courage, joy and holy fear. Reverence it, savor it, ponder it and accept it. Commit yourself to this glorious sharing in the life of Christ by committing yourself to become a witness to Christ until the end of your life on earth.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PRIESTS

We thank you, God our Father, for those who have responded to your call to priestly ministry. Accept this prayer we offer on their behalf; Fill your priests with the sure knowledge of your love. Open their hearts to the power and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Lead them to new depths of union with your Son. Increase in them profound faith in the Sacraments they celebrate as they nourish, strengthen and heal us.

Lord Jesus Christ, grant that these, your priests, may inspire us to strive for holiness by the power of their example, as men of prayer who ponder your word and follow your will.

O Mary, Mother of Christ and our mother, guard with your maternal care these chosen ones, so dear to the Heart of your Son. Intercede for our priests that, offering the Sacrifice of your Son, they may be conformed more each day to the image of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Vocation Prayer

O God, we earnestly ask You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers, and sisters who will love You with their whole strength and gladly spend their entire lives to serve Your Church and to make You known and loved. Bless our families, bless our children, choose from our homes those needed for Your work. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us, pray for our priests, religious, and deacons. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

The Truth About the Eucharist

Rev. John Dowling

Introduction

For nearly two thousand years the Catholic Church has joyfully proclaimed the unique presence of Christ in the Eucharist. From the beginning, Catholic Christians have spoken of the transformation of the bread and wine into the "bread of heaven" and "the cup of salvation." Reflecting on the words of Jesus and the apostles, the early Church considered belief in Christ's Real Presence as one of the requisites for worthy reception of the Eucharist, along with authentic Christian living. Around A.D. 155, Saint Justin Martyr wrote: We call this food Eucharist.... For not as common bread nor common drink do we receive these.... [The] food which has been made into the Eucharist by the Eucharistic prayer set down by Him... is both the flesh and the blood of that incarnated Jesus Saint Justin Martyr; First Apology

Despite the Church's unwavering belief in the Real Presence, recent polls show a significant decrease in the percentage of Catholics in the United States who believe that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. According to a New York Times/CBS poll, two out of three adult Catholics think that the bread and wine are not changed into the body and blood of Christ, but are simply "symbolic reminders." Even among those Catholics who attend Mass on a weekly basis, a majority (fifty-one percent) believe that the Eucharist is merely symbolic. It is obvious, therefore, that a clarification of the Catholic Church's teaching concerning the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist is necessary. And while biblical, historical, and linguistic reasons abound to support the Catholic Church's traditional belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the eucharistic bread and wine, this is only part of the Church's teaching about the Eucharist. For the sacrament to bear fruit in the believer, the objective reality of the eucharistic body of Christ cannot be understood apart from the action of the Holy Spirit and the power of God's Word. These, in turn, must be seen in relation to the subjective dispositions of those who approach the table of the Lord. Only then is one able to understand that what happens is a personal encounter with the living God and not an attempt at magic. The familiar phrase "hocus-pocus" is frequently associated with magic. This phrase originated from a deliberate mispronunciation of the Latin phrase hoc est corpus meum, which means "this is my body." These Latin words were spoken by the priest over the bread, transforming it into the actual body of Christ. The phrase "hocus-pocus" was an attempt to trivialize this most sacred action of the Catholic liturgy, reducing the eucharistic celebration to the realm of magic. Magic is fine for those who want to escape to a world of fantasy. For the Catholic, how-ever, the action of the priest is anything but an escape from reality. Instead, it brings about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Jesus reminds us, "For my flesh is real food / and my blood real drink" (John 6:55, New American Bible). All this comes about through the power of God's Word. It is not hocus-pocus. The eucharistic liturgy fulfills the passage from the prophet: For just as from the heavens / the rain and snow come down / And do not return / there till they have watered the earth, / making it fertile and fruitful, / Giving seed to him who sows / and bread to him who eats, / So shall my word be / that goes forth from my mouth; / It shall not return to me void, / but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it. Isaiah 55:10-11 (New American Bible)

The principal celebrant of the ritualistic action is Christ. The priest who acts in the person of Christ obeys his command to "do this in memory of me" when he speaks, not simply repeats, Christ's words. When the priest speaks these words of consecration, we are reminded of Jesus' own words: "He who hears you, hears me" (Luke 10:16, New American Bible).

Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us.

Amen.

Congratulations to our two deacon candidates!

Your hard work, dedication, and faith have brought you to this milestone, and we are excited to see how God will continue to use you in your ministry journey.
