Speaking and Proclaiming Without Fear

“What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.”

Matthew 10:27–28

When you pray, does God “whisper” to you? Do you sense His presence? Has He convicted your heart about Himself and all that He has revealed? Most likely He has, in His own silent way. God rarely speaks to us in visions or by audibly hearing His voice. Though He has done so, as has been recorded in the lives of some saints, even if He did appear to you in that mystical way, this is not necessarily any better for your salvation and holiness than the ordinary way He usually speaks. For most people, God comes in silent prayer, interior intuitions, and spiritual consolations. For example, one might be listening to a sermon and something jumps out, convicting one’s heart or inspiring with a supernatural insight or hope. God’s ordinary consoling activity in our lives must be “listened” to and responded to. Listening to the Voice of God means we discern the eternal Truth He communicates to us, such as do this or avoid that, and we respond to Him. This is our conscience at work: “Conscience is the most secret core and sanctuary of a man. There he is alone with God, Whose voice echoes in his depths” (Gaudium et Spes #16). In today’s Gospel, when Jesus says, “What I say to you in the darkness...” and “what you hear whispered...” refers to God’s communication with us in that secret sanctuary of our conscience. Jesus says that His communication is not given only to us but must be spoken “in the light” and proclaimed “on the housetops.” While our faith is personal and intimate, it must also become communal by sharing it with others through our words and actions. Sharing our faith can be difficult. We might fear offending another who is not living the Gospel. In addressing this fear, Jesus says, “Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.” Fear should never deter us from sharing our faith. When we live our faith openly and share it charitably and unhindered, others will react. Some will joyfully receive our shared faith, but others will not. Among good-hearted Catholics, when the faith we share with others is not received well, we often second-guess ourselves. We become sensitive to the negative reaction, which easily leads to worry and fear. Such fear must be overcome with love and holy sorrow if we are to fulfill Jesus’ loving command. One way to do so is to regularly align ourselves with God’s command rather than the fear inflicted upon us by the evil one. The one who can “destroy both soul and body in Gehenna” ultimately refers to God’s just judgment, which we must ponder with the spiritual gift of Fear of the Lord. This holy fear is not a fear of punishment alone but a deep belief in and reverence for God’s justice and truth. It is the kind of fear that compels us to remain faithful, seeking to serve God above all else, and courageously and confidently sharing our personal faith with others as the greatest act of love we can offer. A well-formed conscience, guided by the truth of the Gospel, gives us the confidence to speak with clarity and charity. It allows us to discern when and how to proclaim God’s truth in a way that draws souls to Him. If we remain open to His voice and are willing to proclaim what He whispers in our hearts, we will become true witnesses to Christ, bringing His light into a world in desperate need of Him. Reflect today on the inner Voice of God, echoing in the depths of your conscience. Do you hear Him and respond to His Voice? If so, then do not be afraid to share your knowledge of God freely and charitably with others. Foster, instead, a holy fear that drives you to greater fidelity to God and the charity of sharing His love with others.

Lord of perfect justice, You speak to us, day and night, revealing Your love and Truth to our souls in the depths of our consciences. Please help me to listen and to respond to You so that I can also courageously share Your love with others, without fear. Jesus, I trust in You.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PRIESTS

We thank you, God our Father, for those who have responded to your call to priestly ministry. Accept this prayer we offer on their behalf; Fill your priests with the sure knowledge of your love. Open their hearts to the power and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Lead them to new depths of union with your Son. Increase in them profound faith in the Sacraments they celebrate as they nourish, strengthen and heal us.

Lord Jesus Christ, grant that these, your priests, may inspire us to strive for holiness by the power of their example, as men of prayer who ponder your word and follow your will.

O Mary, Mother of Christ and our mother, guard with your maternal care these chosen ones, so dear to the Heart of your Son. Intercede for our priests that, offering the Sacrifice of your Son, they may be conformed more each day to the image of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Vocation Prayer

O God, we earnestly ask You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers, and sisters who will love You with their whole strength and gladly spend their entire lives to serve Your Church and to make You known and loved. Bless our families, bless our children, choose from our homes those needed for Your work. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us, pray for our priests, religious, and deacons. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Last Sunday we heard Jesus choose the disciples whom he would send out to proclaim the kingdom of God. Today he calls upon them to go out and proclaim it from the housetops. But Jeremiah sets the tone for Jesus' instructions when he confesses his fear of those who would persecute him. Jesus reassures his disciples as Jeremiah reassures himself, that God will protect those who carry out the Lord's work. May God's word build our confidence in God's care and fidelity.

Question of the Week:

What do I fear the most about witnessing to my faith in the light of day? How can I see my failing to stand up for what I believe in as a greater fear?

YOUR CONTRIBUTION MATTERS!

Dear Parishioners,

As we are about to enter the summer season, we are reminded of the importance of continuing our support for our parish community. Your generosity sustains the vital ministries and services that enrich our spiritual journey and support those in need.

While many of us may be away on vacation or enjoying the warmer weather, we encourage you to consider making your regular donations to the parish. Your contributions enable us to maintain our facilities and serve our community with love and compassion.

We also invite you to explore convenient options for giving, such as online donations, such as Venmo, or automatic bank transfers, which provide a simple and secure way to support our parish, even when you are away.

Your faithful stewardship ensures that our parish remains a beacon of faith, hope, and love for all who seek solace and spiritual nourishment.

Thank you for your continued generosity, and may God bless you abundantly during this upcoming summer season.

MAT. 10:31

SO DON'T BE AFRAID;
you are worth more than many sparrows.

Happy FATHER'S DAY

This weekend, we joyfully celebrate and honor all the fathers, grandfathers, and father figures within our parish community. Your love, sacrifice, and steadfast guidance are a living testament to the Heavenly Father's boundless care for each of us. As we give thanks for your invaluable role in our lives, let us also turn to our Lord in prayer. May God bestow upon you His divine wisdom, strength, and peace, empowering you to continue leading your families in faith and love. May St. Joseph, the earthly father of Jesus and our model of fatherhood, intercede for you and inspire you always. Happy Father's Day, and may God's grace be with you abundantly!

Daily Schedule:

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament 5:15-5:45pm
Followed by
Mass and Novena Prayer 6:00pm

Carmel is All Mary's

(Totus Marianus est Carmelus)

The history of Carmel overflows with the presence of the Virgin Mary. It began on Mount Carmel where the first hermits dedicated a little chapel to her. Later they undertook to found their lives on imitation of her whom they regarded as the Mother and Patroness of Carmel. She is the embodiment of union with God in faith, hope and love, prayer and self-denial. The grandeur of the feminine vocation was revealed in her when she said: "I am the handmaid of the Lord." She humbly and wisely welcomed the Lord's word and pondered it in her heart. She was wholly responsive to the impulses of the Holy Spirit. She was the valiant woman who followed Christ faithfully and shared in the joys and sorrows of his Paschal Mystery.

In Our Lady, Carmelites contemplate the ideal of the Order lived to perfection. Her example inspires them to follow in her footsteps. They find in her a mother and teacher in the ways of the Spirit who will conform them to Jesus and lead them to the heights of holiness.

Because of their profession, the Carmelite Nuns belong to the Virgin Mary in a special way. They wear her habit to show that they are members of her Order and are determined to clothe themselves with her virtues. The Carmelite ideal is to BE Mary in the Church today, "capable of true love and of being a fountain of living water in the midst of a thirsting world" (Pope Benedict XVI).

"Praise Him, my daughters, for you truly belong to Our Lady... Imitate her and reflect that the grandeur of Our Lady and the good of having her for your patroness must indeed be great."

-St. Teresa of Jesus to her spiritual daughters

"I do not tremble when I see my weakness, for the treasures of a mother belong also to her child, and I am thy child, O dear Mother Mary."

-St. Therese of the Child Jesus

Flos Carmeli Prayer

O beautiful Flower of Carmel, most fruitful vine, Splendor of Heaven, holy and singular, who brought forth the Son of God, still ever remaining a Pure Virgin, assist me in this necessity.
O Star of the sea, help and protect me! Show me that Thou art my Mother.
O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to Thee! Amen.

Totus marianus est Carmelus (Carmel is all Mary's.)

This ancient Carmelite saying was true of the life of St. John of the Cross, who the Carmelite Order is celebrating this year as we mark the 300th anniversary of his canonization and the 100th of his being declared a Doctor of the Church.

Our Mount Carmel Novena, preached by Fr. Thomas Reeves, OCD, will draw on the spiritual teaching of St. John of the Cross to bring us closer to Jesus through Mary, Mother of Carmel.

All are welcome to participate in these grace filled days of prayer.

Masses will also be live streamed

Saint John of the Cross 2026

Prayer for Vocations to Carmel

O God, who did fill the soul of the Blessed Virgin Mary with the spirit of interior prayer, inspire in the hearts of many young people a vocation to her Order of Carmel, that they may plentifully receive of this spirit and generously communicate it to others, through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
