Receiving and Expressing Love

When a scribe approached Jesus and asked Him which of the commandments was the greatest, He replied: “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these” (Mark 12:30–31).

Today’s Gospel offers a similar teaching: We must love God above all else—even more than father, mother, son, or daughter. By contrasting love for God with love for family, Jesus is not diminishing familial affection; rather, He is revealing that the only way to truly love others is by loving God first.

Saint Thomas Aquinas teaches: “God must be loved above all things and before all others out of charity, for He is loved as the source of happiness, whereas our neighbor is loved as one who shares in that happiness along with us” (Summa Theologiae II-II, Q.26, A.2). In other words, God must be loved first because He is the ultimate cause and source of beatitude—the only true happiness. Though we are called to love our families and our neighbors, Christian charity dictates that we love them in relation to God—as fellow recipients of divine happiness.

One reason this Gospel is challenging is that our natural affections, though good, must be transformed by divine charity. It is natural to love our parents and children—God designed us with these affections. Even animals instinctively care for their offspring. But Jesus calls us to something higher: a love that is perfected by divine charity, transcending mere emotional attachment or duty. His teaching does not negate natural love; rather, it purifies, elevates, and directs it toward the highest good—God Himself.

When Jesus speaks of loving “father or mother” or “son or daughter” more than Him, He is addressing the inner conflict we sometimes experience in our emotions. When natural affection is not transformed by spiritual charity, the love we offer another can do more harm than good. Disordered affection replaces the ultimate good—God—with the lesser good of emotional attachment and human consolation. The real danger arises when our loved ones stray from God’s will, and we, out of misguided affection, affirm them in their error, thereby confirming them in a state lacking true beatitude.

The foundation of true love is this: God alone is the source of perfect happiness, for us and for our loved ones. Our belief in God transforms the way we love others. No longer do we merely seek their earthly comfort or emotional well-being; rather, we direct them to the eternal Good—God Himself—who alone fulfills every longing.

When we love God first, all our relationships are purified. Instead of loving others with human affection alone, we love them with the very love of God, seeking their ultimate good: eternal life in Him. This purified love does not exclude human affection; rather, it elevates and directs it, ensuring that our love is not merely sentimental but truly transformative through divine charity.

Reflect today on those closest to you—those whom God calls you to love with the highest form of love. Are your affections rightly ordered, or do they sometimes compete with the charity God desires to instill in you? If so, turn your heart to God. Seek to love Him above all else. Let Him become the object of your deepest love and desire. When God is first, His love will transform you from within, enabling you to love others not just with natural affection, but with the very love of Christ, leading them to the eternal joy of union with Him.

Lord of perfect charity, Your love is pure, holy, and beyond all understanding—so vast, so encompassing, that I will never fathom its depths. Draw me into this love, O Lord, that I may love You above all things. From that love, let the charity of Your Sacred Heart flow through me to others, so that in loving them, I love You. Jesus, I trust in You.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PRIESTS

We thank you, God our Father, for those who have responded to your call to priestly ministry. Accept this prayer we offer on their behalf; Fill your priests with the sure knowledge of your love. Open their hearts to the power and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Lead them to new depths of union with your Son. Increase in them profound faith in the Sacraments they celebrate as they nourish, strengthen and heal us.

Lord Jesus Christ, grant that these, your priests, may inspire us to strive for holiness by the power of their example, as men of prayer who ponder your word and follow your will.

O Mary, Mother of Christ and our mother, guard with your maternal care these chosen ones, so dear to the Heart of your Son. Intercede for our priests that, offering the Sacrifice of your Son, they may be conformed more each day to the image of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Vocation Prayer

O God, we earnestly ask You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers, and sisters who will love You with their whole strength and gladly spend their entire lives to serve Your Church and to make You known and loved. Bless our families, bless our children, choose from our homes those needed for Your work. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us, pray for our priests, religious, and deacons. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Saint Paul teaches the Romans that the Resurrection means that we may all live in "newness of life." We hear of this newness of life in God's word today. Newness of life is offering generous hospitality to the stranger. Newness of life is expecting a baby. Newness of life is praising the goodness of the Lord. Newness of life is offering a cup of cold water to one of the Lord's disciples. Newness of life is even losing one's life for Jesus' sake. As we listen to scripture, let us listen for how our lives are made new by the Lord.

Question of the Week:

What metaphorical "cup of cold water," some simple thing I can do for someone, will I do this week and for whom?

HAPPY Birthday Fr. Mark!

We are delighted to announce that our beloved Pastor,
Fr. Mark Derise, is celebrating his birthday on June 29th!
As we celebrate the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, patrons of our wonderful Church, we are especially grateful to celebrate Fr. Mark's birthday as well!

This providential connection reminds us of the faithful witness of these great apostles, who dedicated their lives to proclaiming the Gospel and serving God's people. In a similar spirit, you have faithfully answered God's call to priesthood and have devoted yourself to guiding Sts. Peter & Paul Church community in faith, hope, and love. We thank God for the gift of your life and for your dedicated ministry among us.
Through your prayers, leadership, compassion, and service,
you have helped strengthen our parish family and draw us closer to Christ.

As we honor you on this special day, we pray that the Lord will continue to bless you abundantly with good health, wisdom, peace, and joy. May Saints Peter & Paul intercede for you, inspiring and strengthening you in your vocation, and may God grant you many more years of fruitful ministry.

Happy Birthday, Fr. Mark! Thank you for being a faithful shepherd to the people of Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church!

YOUR CONTRIBUTION MATTERS!

Dear Parishioners,

As we are about to enter the summer season, we are reminded of the importance of continuing our support for our parish community. Your generosity sustains the vital ministries and services that enrich our spiritual journey and support those in need.

While many of us may be away on vacation or enjoying the warmer weather, we encourage you to consider making your regular donations to the parish. Your contributions enable us to maintain our facilities and serve our community with love and compassion.

We also invite you to explore convenient options for giving,
such as online donations, such as Venmo, or automatic bank transfers, which provide a simple and secure way to support our parish, even when you are away.

Your faithful stewardship ensures that our parish remains a beacon of faith, hope, and love for all who seek solace and spiritual nourishment.

Thank you for your continued generosity, and may God bless you abundantly during this upcoming summer season.

CONGRATS!

We joyfully congratulate the children of our Parish who have received their First Holy Communion this year.

This special milestone marks a deeper union with Jesus in the Eucharist & an important step in their journey of faith.

As a parish family, let us keep these children and their families in our prayers. May they continue to grow in their love for God, faithfully participate in the Mass, and remain close to Christ throughout their lives. May the Holy Spirit guide them as they deepen their relationship with the Lord and live out their Catholic faith with joy and devotion.

"Let the little children come to me." (Matthew 19:14)

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst.

Daily Schedule:

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament 5:15-5:45pm Followed by Mass and Novena Prayer 6:00pm

Blessing and Enrollment in the Brown Scapular will be after Mass on July 16th the Solemnity of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Flos Carmeli Prayer

O beautiful Flower of Carmel, most fruitful vine, Splendor of Heaven, holy and singular, who brought forth the Son of God, still ever remaining a Pure Virgin, assist me in this necessity.
O Star of the sea, help and protect me! Show me that Thou art my Mother.
O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to Thee! Amen.

Totus marianus est Carmelus (Carmel is all Mary's.)

This ancient Carmelite saying was true of the life of St. John of the Cross, who the Carmelite Order is celebrating this year as we mark the 300th anniversary of his canonization and the 100th of his being declared a Doctor of the Church. Our Mount Carmel Novena, preached by Fr. Thomas Reeves, OCD, will draw on the spiritual teaching of St. John of the Cross to bring us closer to Jesus through Mary, Mother of Carmel. All are welcome to participate in these grace filled days of prayer.

Masses will also be live streamed

Carmel is All Mary's

(Totus Marianus est Carmelus)

The history of Carmel overflows with the presence of the Virgin Mary. It began on Mount Carmel where the first hermits dedicated a little chapel to her. Later they undertook to found their lives on imitation of her whom they regarded as the Mother and Patroness of Carmel. She is the embodiment of union with God in faith, hope and love, prayer and self-denial. The grandeur of the feminine vocation was revealed in her when she said: "I am the handmaid of the Lord." She humbly and wisely welcomed the Lord's word and pondered it in her heart. She was wholly responsive to the impulses of the Holy Spirit. She was the valiant woman who followed Christ faithfully and shared in the joys and sorrows of his Paschal Mystery.

In Our Lady, Carmelites contemplate the ideal of the Order lived to perfection. Her example inspires them to follow in her footsteps. They find in her a mother and teacher in the ways of the Spirit who will conform them to Jesus and lead them to the heights of holiness.

Because of their profession, the Carmelite Nuns belong to the Virgin Mary in a special way. They wear her habit to show that they are members of her Order and are determined to clothe themselves with her virtues. The Carmelite ideal is to BE Mary in the Church today, "capable of true love and of being a fountain of living water in the midst of a thirsting world" (Pope Benedict XVI).

"Praise Him, my daughters, for you truly belong to Our Lady... Imitate her and reflect that the grandeur of Our Lady and the good of having her for your patroness must indeed be great."
-St. Teresa of Jesus to her spiritual daughters

"I do not tremble when I see my weakness, for the treasures of a mother belong also to her child, and I am thy child, O dear Mother Mary."
-St. Therese of the Child Jesus

Prayer for Vocations to Carmel

O God, who did fill the soul of the Blessed Virgin Mary with the spirit of interior prayer, inspire in the hearts of many young people a vocation to her Order of Carmel, that they may plentifully receive of this spirit and generously communicate it to others, through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
