Good and Bad Days

“Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” Matthew 17:4

The Apostle Peter’s reaction to the Transfiguration reveals that he was overwhelmed by his firsthand experience of a glimpse of Jesus’ true glory. Not long before this moment, our Lord took His disciples north to Caesarea Philippi and asked them privately who they thought He was. Peter boldly proclaimed, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God” (Matthew 16:16). In response, Jesus promised Peter that He would build His Church upon Peter’s profession of faith and that Peter himself would be entrusted with the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven. It was a good day for Peter.

Shortly after this, however, Jesus began to reveal to His disciples that He “must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised” (Matthew 16:21). In response, Peter pulled Jesus aside and said, “God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you” (Matthew 16:22). Jesus replied harshly to Peter’s rebuke: “Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do” (Matthew 16:23). It was a bad day for Peter.

Jesus then taught His disciples, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it” (Matthew 16:24–25). Not only was Jesus soon to suffer greatly, but His followers, including the Twelve, were called to follow Him on this difficult path. This was hard news for them to accept.

In today’s Gospel, we hear the story of the Transfiguration. Interestingly, Jesus allowed the disciples to reflect on His prediction of suffering for six days before taking Peter, James, and John up a mountain for prayer and solitude. Jesus, aware of their confusion and struggles, was transfigured before their eyes. “[H]is face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him” (Matthew 17:2–3). Peter exclaimed in this moment of glory, “Lord, it is good that we are here.” It was another good day for Peter.

We all have good days and bad days. But what defines a good day versus a bad day? Was the day of Jesus’ Crucifixion a bad one for Him? Certainly not. Though filled with intense suffering, it was the most glorious day in history because His perfect obedience to the Father’s will was fulfilled. Similarly, Peter’s good and bad days can be understood in terms of his willingness to obey Christ, especially when the demands were great.

In our lives, we must also define our good and bad days through the lens of obedience to God’s will, especially when His will calls us to bear the Cross and practice sacrificial love. It’s easy to love God when we are consoled, but it becomes much more difficult when we face trials. Peter’s declaration, “Lord, it is good that we are here,” is the perfect prayer for us to echo in every circumstance. When we are consoled, as Peter was at the Transfiguration, we must pray this prayer. But unlike Peter’s earlier missteps, we must also say, “It is good,” when we encounter opportunities for sacrificial love, even when difficult.

Reflect today on your own good and bad days. Use the lens of holy obedience and your call to live a life of sacrificial love. Do not hesitate to cry out to the Lord, “It is good!” Consider whether you view every cross and every invitation to love sacrificially as something good. This is what God desires for you; embrace His desire with determination and joy.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PRIESTS

We thank you, God our Father, for those who have responded to your call to priestly ministry. Accept this prayer we offer on their behalf; Fill your priests with the sure knowledge of your love. Open their hearts to the power and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Lead them to new depths of union with your Son. Increase in them profound faith in the Sacraments they celebrate as they nourish, strengthen and heal us.

Lord Jesus Christ, grant that these, your priests, may inspire us to strive for holiness by the power of their example, as men of prayer who ponder your word and follow your will.

O Mary, Mother of Christ and our mother, guard with your maternal care these chosen ones, so dear to the Heart of your Son. Intercede for our priests that, offering the Sacrifice of your Son, they may be conformed more each day to the image of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Vocation Prayer

O God, we earnestly ask You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers, and sisters who will love You with their whole strength and gladly spend their entire lives to serve Your Church and to make You known and loved. Bless our families, bless our children, choose from our homes those needed for Your work. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us, pray for our priests, religious, and deacons. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased," we hear in today's Gospel as Jesus is transfigured at the top of a high mountain. "Listen to him." Listening is important, so important that it is the Father's sole command to the three disciples who accompanied Jesus up the mountain. Let us now obey that command and listen to God's word—to Abraham, from Paul to Timothy, and Matthew's account of the Transfiguration—for we too are the Son's disciples, eager to grow in faith and understanding.

Question of the Week:

How can I see myself transfigured between now and Easter? How will accepting my cross and following Jesus more closely help transform my life?

Altar Flowers:

We'd love to honor your special day(s), person, and/or memory with a beautiful flower arrangement in the Sanctuary for the Weekend masses.

March 1: Second Sunday of Lent The Extraordinary in the Ordinary

Readings: Gen 12:1-4a; 2 Tim 1:8b-10; Matt 17:1-9

Scripture: And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun... (Matt 17:2)

Reflection: I always liked this saying from the East: "After ecstasy, the laundry." There are ordinary experiences, and there are extraordinary experiences. The transfiguration of Jesus certainly falls in the latter category. A special memory is being shared with us—an experience that goes beyond words. When we don't have words, we turn to symbols, images, and poetry. In this case, the Gospel's description conveys how Jesus is fulfilling the divine promises given to the chosen people through the law and the prophets. The cloud, the voice, the light—these were manifestations of the divine presence when the people came out of Egypt during the exodus. Now, on the Mount of Transfiguration, they are manifestations of how God continues to care for, enlighten, and guide his people through Jesus. The disciples are glimpsing something of God's glory.

Jesus tells the disciples not to talk about the experience yet. People are not ready to hear it. The only way this experience will make sense is in the long run, by coming down the mountain into the ordinary events of life. This is how we begin to see the extraordinary in the ordinary. Of course, in the disciples' case, those dusty roads through the valleys will eventually lead to the cross. That's more than a message for laundry day. Jesus is inviting the disciples (and us) to bring their faith—to bring him—not merely into everyday routines but into experiences of rejection, suffering, pain, and abandonment. That's where we'll understand the depth of the healing and love Christ wants to give us.

Thank God for the mountaintop experiences: the retreats, prayer meetings, accomplishments, friendships, and romance. God gives us these gifts to help us glimpse his glory.

But it's the harsher realities that test us, purify us, and deepen our understanding. That's where we come to know how close God is. We come to understand the gift in the ordinary.

Meditation: When have I been especially aware of the presence of God? How did I feel? How did it affect my understanding of myself? My daily life? My relationships with others?

Prayer: Lord, be with me as I travel the ordinary path of my life. Let me know in strong and beautiful ways that you travel with me.
