Members of God's Family

"I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you." John 14:18-20

The feeling of being an orphan—of longing for belonging—reflects a deeper spiritual reality Jesus addressed with His disciples in today's Gospel. Those with close families are truly blessed, as a supportive family fosters personal growth and a sense of identity. When one is orphaned, the absence of these natural bonds can leave a lasting sense of loss. Yet even the strongest earthly family relationships point to a greater truth: our ultimate belonging is found in God's family. Jesus understood the sense of loss His disciples would feel after His Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension. When He said, "In a little while the world will no longer see me..." He was preparing them for His physical departure through the Ascension. But He reassures them: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you...you will see me, because I live and you will live."

Initially, the disciples struggled to grasp the meaning of these words. Only after the outpouring of the Holy Spirit did they begin to understand. The same promise Jesus made to them applies to us today. Though we were not among those who witnessed His earthly presence, we too have a longing for His nearness—a longing to belong, to be loved, and to find our place within a family. This longing is fulfilled supernaturally through the gift of faith and our incorporation into God's divine family, the Church.

Faith is the key to this relationship. It is more than intellectual belief; it is the acceptance of a personal revelation from God and a choice to live according to that revelation. Jesus promises that those who love Him and obey His commandments will experience His presence and that of the Father. This experience begins through faith, which is a gift by which God communicates Himself to us, revealing His love and will. It is both certain and mysterious, a knowledge that leads us to divine hope and sustains us in the pursuit of God's will.

Faith also unites us with one another. Through faith, we are no longer orphans but brothers and sisters in Christ. Our natural longing to belong finds its ultimate fulfillment in God's glorious family, which begins on earth and is perfected in Heaven.

Reflect today on the desire in your heart to belong, to be loved, and to be part of a family. Recognize that this longing finds its ultimate fulfillment in the family of God. Though we await the fullness of this communion in Heaven, we can experience it even now. Commit yourself to respond to Jesus' invitation by embracing your place in His family through prayer, the sacraments, and daily acts of love. Recognize that He is in the Father, we are in Him, and He is in us. Embrace this reality, allowing the gift of faith to draw you more deeply into the divine family to which we are called.

My revealing Lord, deep within my soul I long for You and desire to be one with You and Your Father through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Please reveal Yourself to me so that I can know You, live according to Your commandments, and flourish in Your grace. May my membership in Your family of faith, through the Church, begin now and become perfected in Heaven. Jesus, I trust in You.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PRIESTS

We thank you, God our Father, for those who have responded to your call to priestly ministry. Accept this prayer we offer on their behalf; Fill your priests with the sure knowledge of your love. Open their hearts to the power and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Lead them to new depths of union with your Son. Increase in them profound faith in the Sacraments they celebrate as they nourish, strengthen and heal us.

Lord Jesus Christ, grant that these, your priests, may inspire us to strive for holiness by the power of their example, as men of prayer who ponder your word and follow your will.

O Mary, Mother of Christ and our mother, guard with your maternal care these chosen ones, so dear to the Heart of your Son. Intercede for our priests that, offering the Sacrifice of your Son, they may be conformed more each day to the image of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Vocation Prayer

O God, we earnestly ask You to bless this diocese with many priests, brothers, and sisters who will love You with their whole strength and gladly spend their entire lives to serve Your Church and to make You known and loved. Bless our families, bless our children, choose from our homes those needed for Your work. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us, pray for our priests, religious, and deacons. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Two weeks before we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles at Pentecost, we hear of the Spirit both before and after that blessed event. In the first reading, the people of Samaria receive the Holy Spirit after Peter and John come to lay hands on them. In the Gospel, Jesus promises the disciples that the Holy Spirit will stay with them always. As we listen to God's word, may we realize the Holy Spirit's enduring presence in our lives.

Question of the Week:

How can the kind of joy that the Holy Spirit brings enable me to endure suffering?

Jesus Is Lord of Me?

Readings: Acts 8:5-8, 14-17; 1 Pet 3:15-18; John 14:15-21

Scripture: Beloved: Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. (1 Pet 3:15)

Reflection: I'm not the disciple I want to be or dreamed of being back when I devoured hagiographies from A to Z—well, in my case, from A to J—in the school library. This is an uneasy truth I live with every day. I read about saints, but I haven't become one. Narratives of martyrs laying down their lives and missionaries following the gospel to the ends of the earth render my humble journey quite unimpressive. My faith feels, at times, like a deception I've settled for in place of the vocation I was meant to embrace. And I'm running out of time.

No biography of any saint I ever read goes like this: "She grew up in a huge family in a small town, attended Catholic schools, studied theology, moved around, worked in some parishes, and wrote for Catholic magazines. The End." This would be the story of a baptismal failure-to-launch if it were the whole saga. Thanks be to God, I haven't yet come to The End.

What I do with my bland reality is what I imagine you also do in the midst of your own journey: I take it to prayer. Often. I try to do what the First Letter of Peter recommends: sanctify Christ as Lord in my heart each morning. I lift up the day, with its calendar of mostly uninteresting events: gym classes, doctor's appointments, errands, writing, and meal prep. I ask that my words and actions and random encounters might be respectful and helpful. But most of all, I pray that my life might be conformed to Christ. So when the hour comes for the embryonic saint in me to emerge, act, and inspire, she will say and do the things I was born for.

Meditation: Most saints are never canonized, and even canonized saints lived hidden lives much of the time. The task of sanctification takes time and is largely invisible to the eye. Think of the unobserved routines of monastic vocations, parenting, or marital fidelity. Keep at it.

Prayer: Holy God, your times and seasons are not governed by our clocks and calendars. Give me patience to fully become the person you are daily calling into being.

Happy Mother's Day

This Sunday, we celebrate the profound love and unwavering dedication of all mothers, grandmothers, and mother figures. Your nurturing presence enriches our lives and reflects the unconditional love of our Heavenly Mother. May your day be filled with joy, peace, and countless blessings.
God bless all mothers!

Please also remember these mothers in your prayers, whose envelopes were received after the deadline. We gratefully include them in this year's Mother's Day Spiritual Bouquet.
