Conversion in the Middle East

The liturgical feast of Christ the King was added to the Church calendar in 1925, when Pope Pius XI instituted it with his encyclical Quas Primas. The eschatological event it celebrates has been in the mind and heart of the Blessed Trinity from before the beginning of time and was clearly proclaimed by Jesus in His public ministry

At the time Pope Pius XI instituted it, the world was in political and social chaos. After World War I ended in 1918, secularism began to grow worldwide, and communist and fascist ideologies emerged, leading many to question and even abandon their faith. The unity of faith and civil governance, which had been part of the make-up of Europe since the fourth century, slowly crumbled, and God's sovereignty over the world was readily dismissed. Though the concept of the separation of the Church and state can be helpful to both the Church and the State, if God's authority and laws are excluded from human governance, man is left to his own designs and inevitably goes astray.

Upon seeing the social and political culture of the 1920s devolve, Pope Pius XI felt that he needed to remind the Church and the world that there is only one King, and that King is not only the King of Catholics, He is the King of humanity, of the entire Universe. In his encyclical letter, Pope Pius quotes Pope Leo XIII who said in his encyclical on the Sacred Heart, Annum Sacrum, "[Christ's] empire includes not only Catholic nations, not only baptized persons...but also all those who are outside the Christian faith; so that truly the whole of mankind is subject to the power of Jesus Christ." Pope Pius XI goes on to say, "Nor is there any difference in this matter between the individual and the family or the State; for all men, whether collectively or individually, are under the dominion of Christ. In him is the salvation of the individual, in him is the salvation of society" (Quas Primas #18). As we celebrate this glorious solemnity, the last Sunday of the Church's liturgical year, deepen your faith in the mystery it celebrates, and strengthen your resolve to embrace the Kingship of Christ in your life, so that through you, His Kingdom will become all the more present in the world all around you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Suresh Mathangi

God is good all the time!

Thanks be to Almighty God who brought me to serve His people here at Sts. Peter and Paul in Scott for the last sixteen months. I am truly grateful for the encouragement and loyal support that I have received from you all; your patience, understanding, and strong faith has brought me closer to God. The spirit you have shown me of service toward your fellow parishioners is a spirit I will carry with me as I go forward. Be assured of my daily prayers for you all as we continue on our journey to Heaven. I would like to thank the Sts. Peter and Paul School staff and students who have helped to make my time here a labor of love and joy. I also would like to thank all the office staff, Deacons Prejean and Tanner, the Knights of Columbus, the Catholic Daughters of America and our ACTS teams for your tireless support and service.

Lastly, I would like to thank Bishop Emeritus Michael Jarrell and Father Mark Derise for always making me feel welcome here in Scott. Their friendship and encouragement inspired me every day to grow deeper in my ministry and I will surely walk with their kindness all the days of my life. Please keep me in your prayers and know that you will all be in mine.
