IS LIFE ALWAYS FAIR?

IT WOULD SEEM NOT. WE HAVE ALL EXPERIENCED SITUATIONS IN LIFE WHEN WE FELT AS THOUGH WE WERE CHEATED. FROM AN EARTHLY PERSPECTIVE, IT IS TRUE THAT LIFE IS NOT ALWAYS FAIR. BUT WE OUGHT NOT LIVE BY AN EARTHLY PERSPECTIVE. WE ARE CALLED TO LIVE ACCORDING TO THE DIVINE PERSPECTIVE. FROM THAT PERSPECTIVE, EVERYTHING IS FAIR IN THE END, AND TRUE JUSTICE IS METED OUT TO EVERYONE.

Feast Days

26th - Sts. Cosmas & Damian

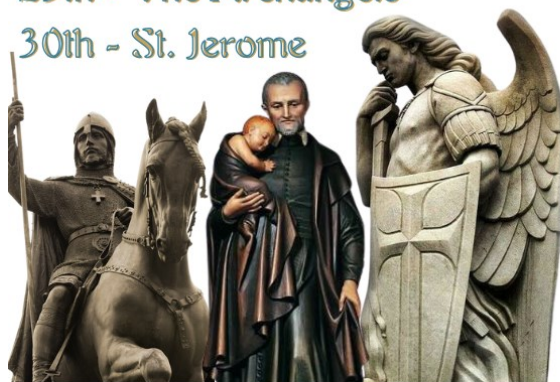

27th - St. Vincent De Paul

28th - St. Wenceslaus &

Lawrence Ruiz & Companions

29th - The Archangels

30th - St. Jerome

The parable we read today presents to us the scenario in which God has chosen to bestow His grace and mercy in abundance to all who turn to Him. We can never earn the right to His mercy. Nothing we can do will ever give us the right to the gift of eternal salvation. Therefore, this parable especially challenges us to look at Heaven and the life of grace on earth from the perspective of "gift." All is a gift from God. Whether we convert at the end of our lives, after living sinful lives, or whether we have spent our whole lives serving the will of God, all is a gift in the end, all is grace.

Only when we comprehend God's goodness and infinite generosity will we be able to overcome our temptations toward jealousy and selfishness. Those who have dedicated their entire lives to the love of God, if it is a genuine love and service of God, will, as a result, take on the perspective of the mind and heart of God. Part of that perspective is the burning desire to generously bestow God's infinite grace and mercy upon everyone who turns to Him. Even the most hardened sinner who has been the source of much hurt in life is a candidate for the fullness of God's grace if they repent. This must be our desire. We must be like the landowner in this parable who rejoices when laborers show up in the last hour and then lavishes a full day's wages upon them. Not only is this fair from the divine perspective, it must become our personal desire as we labor through life.

Reflect, today, upon how deeply you desire to see those who have not yet given their lives to God to come to Him and receive the fullness of grace. Look at them within the context of this parable. Examine how you feel about those laborers who have not yet begun their service of God. Examine, also, your feelings toward those who seem undeserving of the fullness of God's grace. If you find that you have jealousy, or judge others from the perspective of earthly justice, work to eliminate that perspective so that your heart's deepest desire is to see God bestow the fullness of mercy upon everyone in this world when they turn to Him with a contrite heart.
